

FUNDAMENTALS OF NURSING

OBJECTIVES SURGICAL CLIENT Chapter 36

Mastery of content in this chapter will enable the student to:

- 1 Define the key terms listed.
- 2 Explain the concept of perioperative nursing care.
- 3 Differentiate between classifications of surgery and types of anesthesia.
- 4 List factors to include in the preoperative assessment of a surgical client.
- 5 Design a preoperative teaching plan.
- 6 Prepare a client for surgery.
- 7 Explain the differences in caring for the client undergoing outpatient surgery versus the client undergoing inpatient surgery.
- 8 Describe intraoperative factors that can affect a client's postoperative course.
- 9 Identify factors to include in the assessment of a client in postoperative recovery.
- 10 Describe the rationale for nursing interventions designed to prevent postoperative complications.

INSERT/IRRIGATE/REMOVE NASOGASTRIC

Chapter 36

LAB:

Practice

- 1 Demonstrate teaching postoperative exercises.

Graded Lab - videotape

- 1 Demonstrate inserting a nasogastric tube.
- 2 Demonstrate irrigating a nasogastric tube.
- 3 Demonstrate removing a nasogastric tube.